STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1903. 8 A M

NO. 30

KINGSVILLE.

Messrs. Manfreu and Everett Chevolette will in a short while build an addition to their dwelling and otherwise remodel and improve.

Hon. Harve Helm was here Friday. Mrs. Dr. J. W. Acton has been critically ill, but is now thought to be improving. Mack Williams is slowly improving.

The ladies of Kingsville will give a lawn fete for the benefit of the Christian church the evening of June 18. The public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy a pleasant evening socially and help in a good cause.

It was a new engineer Mr. Campbell brought down from Lexington last week instead of engine as our last stated. The new mill runs quite regularly and is doing much good to the community in its way, as the cannery factory.

Mr. G. A. Walter continues to improve his property and we learn that he is thinking seriously of moving his store property back a little distance from the street so that he may have a yard with flowers, etc., as an "attraction for the ladies," which seems quite unnecessary.

Some one asked us while in Somerset recently where we were going to put the round house. They were informed that we have as much level ground as Somerset, except fountain square. Thanks to its editor or some kind friend for a copy of the "Hornet," edited by that true Southerner, W. Kirk Boone.

The pond which is being built by the R. R. Co. is still under construction. It is no small affair by any means. Mr. Fitzgerald was here a few days since and stated that the company would in a short time build a new track from the trestle to the tunnel, which will make three tracks on this section. The company is to do away with Patton's and the Green River water tanks when they've instituted the new tank here.

Mr. F. M. Howe's residence is to be repainted. Quite a number of dwellings in our town have been painted and repainted recently and the owner's tastes seem to run the same way, as every house so far has been painted the same color, that is gray. Surely this is not a Quaker city. Mr. McCarty is going to vary the monotony by painting his dwelling and store-house another color than the one referred to.

Mr. W. L. McCarty's friends and neighbors congratulate him on his recent purchase of so fine a farm in the blue grass section. Mr. McCarty says he doesn't expect to leave here for perhaps two years, but when he does he will be greatly missed indeed and our little town will have lost its leading man. Mr. McCarty, who is perhaps the future sheriff of our county, has a handsome new desk which is perfection itself in the way of convenience.

Following is the testimony of B. J. Ewen in the Jett-White case at Jackson: "I was standing beside Marcum in the front door of the court house. I was on his right side. Tom White passed by close to Marcum and looked him in the face. White went out and down about six steps and still looked at Marcum. Marcum's arm was on my shoulder. Marcum said, 'Ewen, I am afraid of that fellow. He is a bad man.' Just then a pistol shot rang out close behind us. Marcum's hand dropped off my shoulder and he fell backwards. He uttered a cry of pain. I whirled my head and saw Curt Jett coming with a pistol in both hands. I ran, thinking he was going to shoot me. I then saw a motion in the side court house door. A man peered out and I saw it was Curt Jett. He walked out toward the well. He had his hands behind him and his hat pulled over his eyes."

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles completely cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.

Atlanta And Return via Queen & Crescent Route. One fare round trip plus 25c. Tickets on sale July 7, 8, 9, 10, good returning until July 15 with privilege of extension until Aug. 15, on deposit of ticket and payment of 50c at Joint Agency at Atlanta.

A man can be almighty mean to his wife and yet wipe out the score if he will only remember, when they are dining in a swell restaurant, to say he can never eat roast beef except in his own house.—New York Press.

Moses Tanner, a wealthy farmer of Boone county, dropped dead.

HUBBLE.

Another wedding is expected to take place in our community this week.

Sunday school will be resumed at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Carmie Hubble and Miss Effie Sloan drove to Lancaster Wednesday and were married.

Eph Woods received George Woods' lambs here Tuesday, sold some time back at 6c. Lutes Bros. bought H. J. Luce's lambs at 5 1/2c and received them here Tuesday.

Squire Dudderar and some hands are putting dirt on the rough rock on our Rush Branch pike and thereby making a much needed improvement. The squire is making a good hand each day instead of standing around and boosing the job as many would in his place.

Dr. Bailey, of the board of health, visited the small-pox patients in this community Sunday and found them all well and no new cases. He lifted the quarantine. People are cleaning and fumigating their houses from cellar to garret and we apprehend no danger of its reappearing.

Mrs. Nancy Smith is sick. Miss Annie Tartar, of Somerset, is the guest of Miss Florence Hammond. Chas. Conley is with his sister, Mrs. Robert Sloan. Miss Ethel Carman, accompanied by Miss Vernie Sisk, has returned from Lexington. Walter Owsley is visiting friends in Lexington.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Jenkins, which has been seriously ill for some days is better at this writing. Mrs. G. W. Acton is ill.

Fruit will not be as plentiful as was first expected. The blackberry crop promises to be very fine. Oats are looking well since the recent rains while fertilized corn is booming.

Roland Padgett, of Waynesburg, was in this section this week taking options on farms for J. H. Dalgh. Shelt Reed, of Indianapolis, is here visiting relatives. D. L. Young, wife and son were here Saturday visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Young. S. M. Young, who is engaged in the lumber business at Waynesburg, was at home Sunday. Miss Fannie Young, who has been at home for a few days with her parents, has returned to Stanford. Mrs. Virgil Carrier, who has been visiting her mother near Mt. Salem, has returned home. Greenup Baugh and family were visiting at Logan Bryant's Sunday. H. P. Young has gone to Somerset to spend a month or so with his children at that place.

Fox & Lawson bought of Josh Jones and George W. Pulliam a car-load of fine lambs at 6c. They averaged 85 pounds.

Worst Of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel Troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It is guaranteed by all druggists.

She—You advertise 12 eggs for 25 cents.

He—So we do ma'am

"I bought 25 cents worth of you yesterday and I only got 10 eggs, and they were all bad."

"Yes'm; I supposed 10 would be all you would want of those eggs, ma'am."

—Yonkers Statesman.

In passing on a divorce case the other day, a judge said marriage should not be treated as an experiment. It is not a contract to be entered into lightly, yet the dockets are crowded with divorce petitions of persons who have entered the marriage state without proper reflection and after only a short acquaintance with the persons they were about to marry. Philosophers have been trying for many years to determine why a man will sign a life contract with a woman with less consideration than he would give to the purchase of a $10 cow, and why a woman will bind herself for all time to come to a man about whose character she knows nothing, when she would not give 30 cents for a bottle of perfume with the merits of which she is not acquainted, but the question is as far from determination as ever.

In Chicago there is an all-night shoe store and an all-night hat store. The proprietors discovered there are many thousands of men who work all night and who can more conveniently make their purchases than in the day. In New York there is to be a bank in a leading hotel for evening business, it being kept open until 10 o'clock. Owing to the increasing army of men who work after the candle light of their forefathers we may expect still more business establishments to bid for night custom.

TWENTY years ago there were 294 millionaires in New York. To-day there are 1,320, with the list constantly growing under laws that make the rich richer and the poor poorer. John Jacob Astor was the first person to get in the millionaire class in Gotham and it was in 1820.

THE Advocate's commencement of Central University edition was a thing of beauty and it will prove a joy forever to the boys whose pictures appear in it. Brer Menefee and McIntyre are making the Advocate up-to-date in the fullest sense of the term.

NEVER before in the history of Kentucky were so many banks organized in the same space of time as there were during the month of May. The number is 23, and there are plans on foot to organize as many more in June.

Capt. Allen alleges that he was offered $5,000 to testify that he was mistaken in his statement that he saw and recognized Curtis Jett in the court house at Jackson, immediately after the shooting of Marcum.

The great building tie-up practically ended when the lumber and brick yards throughout Greater New York were thrown open for business. By the end of the week it is expected that between 100,000 and 130,000 men, idle since May 5, will be at work.

A military revolution broke out at Belgrade, Servia. King Alexandria, Queen Draga, the queen's sister and brother, the premier and a number of others were murdered in the palace by soldiers. Prince Karageorgevitch, long a pretender to the throne, was proclaimed king. The public seemingly approves the coup d'etat.

CHURCH MATTERS.

A congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church has been called for next Sunday at 11 A. M. A full attendance is desired.

Services at State Valley church, in Bath county, were interrupted by a rabid dog. It was beaten to death and worship was resumed.

Brown, of the railroad committee of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists, has secured a concession of railroad rates to the meeting at Winchester, June 15-20, as follows: From the C., N. THE Somerset Hornet says that all that is required to capture the average Somerset girl is a rubber tire buckboard and a silk hat. We hope and believe Brer Boone is wrong.

HUNG HIMSELF.—Mr. Weed Williams, brother of Mr. Reuben Williams, of McKinney, committed suicide Tuesday by hanging himself in his room. He tore off a portion of a bed cover and used it to destroy himself. He was about 75 years old and had been in very bad health for years.

OWENS.—Mr. Samuel M. Owens, who made Lincoln county one of the most popular sheriffs she ever had, has yielded to the requests of his friends all over the county and announces for sheriff in this issue. "Sam," as his friends affectionately call him, is a lively sprinter when it comes to running for office and if he don't win the nomination he will make the rest of the entries know he was in the race. Mr. Owens is a "true blue" democrat and his many hard licks for the party he loves will not soon be forgotten. He comes from the democratic end of the county and has a strong backing at home.

GOOD FOR OUR BOYS.—Stanford boys have made their mark at Central University this year. Mr. Caswell Saufley, son of Judge M. C. Saufley, won the Annual June Oratorical Contest between the Delnological and Chamberlain Societies. His subject was "Shall Wrong be Made Right?" The victory entitles Mr. Saufley to represent Central University at the Chautauqua contest to be held in Lexington. He also won the Sophomore watch, a handsome gold one—which was a Latin prize. Mr. Harry Higgins won the Sidney Johnson prize for the highest general average in the junior class—a $50 watch. The other boys from this county made most a creditable showing.

A MOST thoroughly enjoyable entertainment was that given under the supervision of Miss Ella May Saunders at Walton's Opera House Tuesday evening. The splendid program printed last issue was carried out without hitch or bobble and the large audience showed its appreciation of it by unstinted applause. All who took part did well and have every reason to feel proud over their achievements. The several farces were good, the recitations were most creditable, while the solos, both vocal and instrumental, were of a high order. The preparation for the entertainment took lots of hard, painstaking work on the part of Miss Saunders, but she was equal to the occasion and is deserving of much congratulation for her success.

CIRCUIT COURT is yet engaged in the trial of the criminal docket. Russell Gooch, indicted for selling liquor, Richard Baker, charged with gambling, and J. H. Hertzog, charged with selling wine without license, were all acquitted on the first day. Hertzog's defense was that while his wine makes one "feel good," it will not intoxicate, and he was sustained in this defense by the testimony of some local experts. John B. Anderson, for trespass, was fined $10.

On Tuesday, George Craig, for carrying concealed weapons, was fined $25 and given 10 days in jail. James Tall, for striking Flora Bruner, was given a year in the penitentiary. Frank Ralborn was also sent to the penitentiary for two years for forging H. H. McCann's name to a check for $35.50. Cora Hunt, charged with cutting Sallie Baker, was acquitted. The case of Hiram Grant, charged with the murder of Chas. Likens, began Wednesday morning and occupied the court's time until yesterday afternoon when he was given two years.

OPENING BALL.—The opening ball at Crab Orchard Springs will occur Friday evening, June 19. Don't fail to be present.

GO to Sacray Slater's studios, Stanford and Danville, for high-class pictures at right prices. Quickest and best service.

HON. R. C. WARREN has been chosen by Gov. Beckham to hold the Wayne Circuit Court which begins Monday. A most excellent selection.

E. H. BEASLEY is having printed a handsome program of his elocutionary contest here June 19. It will be a dozen or more pages and almost every business house in town will be represented.

"WHEN I was a magistrate years ago, we had to give $400 to a responsible man to take the office of sheriff, but now people are failing over each other in their effort to get the office," said Mr. L. G. Gooch, of Waynesburg, to us the other day.

A DISPATCH from Williamsburg says that Craig Gragg was placed in jail charged with a murderous assault upon a woman he claims to be his wife. It is thought she will recover, but she is in a very serious condition. Gragg has been in jail here several times for safe keeping.

"THEY say you are a candidate for assessor," we said to George T. Wood, yesterday. "I am not a candidate yet, but I expect to announce myself for that office at the proper time," he answered. Mr. Wood is one of the good democrats of the Hubble section, and is as good a citizen as he is a democrat.

PIKE.—Mrs. Rebecca Pike, wife of Richard Pike, of Brodhead, died Wednesday after a protracted illness. The burial took place at 2 P. M. yesterday. Rev. E. R. Noel, of this place, preached the funeral. Rev. Noel, who knew the deceased well, says she was a Godly woman and one who will be sadly missed.

EVERY preparation is being made for the opening ball at grand old Crab Orchard Springs Friday evening, June 19th. Elegant music has been engaged and those who delight in tripping the light fantastic will be there in large numbers. A delightful lot of guests have already gathered at the Springs, while many rooms have been written for for next week. Manager Willis is in high feather over his prospects for a big season.

A RUNAWAY, in which three vehicles were overturned and in which nobody was hurt, occurred on Main street Wednesday morning. C. M. Young's horse started, and running into T. C. Willis' stable, started his horse to run. Mr. Willis' horse and vehicle were separated early in the action and the latter considerably damaged. Mr. Forester Reid's buggy was struck and upset, but not broken. The spring wagon belonging to Mr. Young was badly broken and his harness torn to pieces.

MISS LUCY MILLER GIVENS gave a most delightful dancing party last evening to a number of her young friends at Griffith's hall. There were about 50 couples in the grand march at 8:30. The promenade was led by Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Goltra, and Miss Givens and Mr. Fred Herron. The party was chaperoned by Mesdames Albert S. Miller, George Steele and William Goltra. The affair was undoubtedly one of the leading social events of the season in the younger circle of Crawfordville society.—Crawfordville, Ind., Times.

The reception given by Miss Sara Dunn Baughman at her handsome country home Wednesday evening was a delightful one in every particular and was thoroughly enjoyed by the 40 or more couples present. Miss Baughman with Misses Sadie Birk, of Owensboro, Mattie Mae Robinson, of Lancaster, Chloe Smith Baughman, of Stanford, and Messrs. Jones and John S. Baughman and Harry Robinson, received and entertained the guests in a manner which made all feel that it was good to be there. At the proper hour an elegant lunch was served and heartily enjoyed. The spacious yard was brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns and tete-a-tetes were a feature of the occasion. It was midnight when the guests reluctantly bade the fair hostess adieu and all were loud in their praise of a most enjoyable evening.

It is almost cold enough for frost this morning.

MARSHAL JONES is a good collector. He has gotten in all of the property tax of last year—about $3,200—except the small sum of 40 cents.

THE Louisville Times, Weekly Courier Journal and the Lexington Democrat are making an unprecedented campaign offer—the three papers six months for $3.50.
